

The Gifts of the Spirit

Romans 12:6-8

Gift	Definition
Prophesying	The ability to receive and communicate an immediate message of God to His people through a divinely anointed utterance.
Serving	The ability to identify the unmet needs involved in a task related to God's work, and to make use of available resources to meet those needs and help accomplish the desired goals.
Teaching	The special ability that God gives to communicate information, relevant to the health and ministry of the Body of Christ and its members in such a way that others will learn and be edified.
Exhortation	A gift that enables someone to minister words of comfort, consolation, encouragement, counsel, and reproof to other people in such a way that they are helped, healed, or convicted to turn from sin.
Giving	The ability of someone to be willing to cheerfully contribute their material resources to the work of God with liberality and without any desire for self-benefit.
Leadership	The ability to set goals in accordance with God's purpose for the future and to communicate those goals to others in such a way that they voluntarily and harmoniously work together to accomplish those goals.
Mercy	The ability to feel genuine empathy and compassion for individuals, both Christian and non-Christian, who suffer distressing physical, mental or emotional problems. And then to apply that compassion into deeds that will alleviate and comfort their suffering.

1 Corinthians 12

Word of wisdom	The ability to apply Biblical knowledge in such a way as to make spiritual truths quite relevant and practical in proper decision making and daily life situations.
Word of knowledge	The ability to discover, accumulate, analyze, and clarify information and ideas that are pertinent to the growth and well-being of the Body of Christ.
Faith	The ability of being firmly persuaded of God's power and promises to accomplish His will and purpose and to display such a confidence in God and His word that circumstances and obstacles do not shake that conviction. This person has a deeper insight into God's will and plans.
Healing	The ability to heal people of their sicknesses and deformities and to restore health apart from natural means.
Effecting of miracles	The ability to demonstrate supernatural powers, acts, and deeds that are unexplainable except by the divine intervention of God. These acts are observable, immediate, and beyond the realm of human experimentation or explanation.
Distinguishing of spirits	The ability that enables one to accurately assess and judge inner motives, hidden errors, or corrupting doctrines. This person can distinguish between teaching and behavior that is from God, from the flesh or from the devil.
Tongues	The Greek word means "to speak in a tongue." It is the ability to speak in a language not previously learned so 1) unbelievers can hear God's message in their own language, 2) believers can be edified and encouraged and 3) God can be praised beyond our understanding.
Interpretation of tongues	The ability to make known in the vernacular (common language) the message of one who speaks in tongues. Realize that it is an interpretation and not a translation.
Apostles	The special ability that God gives to certain members of the body of Christ that enables them to assume and exercise helpful leadership over a number of churches in spiritual matters.
Helps	The Greek word for helps means, "to take a burden upon oneself." It is to invest the talents that a person has into the life and ministry of other members of the Body of Christ, thus enabling that person helped to increase the effectiveness of his own ministry.
Administration	The Greek word for administration means, "piloting or steering." It was the helmsman whose chief task was to keep his ship on course. He steered the ship from dangerous rocks, mapped out the course that the ship would take, and knew the limits and capabilities of the crew. It is the ability to clearly understand the immediate and long-range goals of a particular project and to plan, organize, and supervise others to reach that goal.

Ephesians 4:11

Evangelism	This enables someone to present the Gospel with simplicity, clarity, and effectiveness. This person has a deep concern about those who are lost and is comfortable and able to share the Gospel in any situation and at any time.
Pastor	In the Bible the words pastor, shepherd, elder, overseer, and bishop are often used interchangeably. It is the ability to spiritually care for, protect, guide, and feed a group of believers entrusted to one's care.

1 Peter 3:9-11

Hospitality	The Greek word means "love of strangers." It is a great desire to warmly welcome people, even strangers, into one's home or church as a means of serving those in need of food or lodging.

- Often opening your home to newcomers and visitors in the church
- Enjoy meeting new people
- Able to make strangers feel immediately comfortable in your presence
- Enjoy letting out-of-state visitors stay at your home

So how might some of these gifts fit together to further God's will in the world?

Someone in the congregation who has the gift of faith sees clearly God's plan to establish a sister church in another, perhaps distant, place.

One with the gift of administration puts together a plan involving finances, people, building materials, schedule, and so forth to accomplish this vision.

One with the gift of exhortation is able to encourage people to pray about and then volunteer to help with this project.

One with the gift of leadership is able gather these volunteers and assign them so that they are the most efficient.

Those with the gift of serving will gather the necessary materials before leaving and doing a lot of the menial and necessary tasks once everyone is there.

Once there, someone with the gift of pastoring will take over shepherding the new church.

Someone with the gift of distinguishing of spirits will be able to keep away those who want to come in and do harm to the new church.

Someone with the gift of miracles or healing can demonstrate great signs to prove to the locals that this is indeed a work of the true God.

One with the gift of teaching may lead Bible studies to grow those newcomers in the church.

And so on. Every gift would ultimately have a very important and critical function in starting and growing this church.

As you can see, it takes a lot of different talents to build a church. Imagine if everyone who was involved had only the gift of pastoring or the gift of administration or the gift of faith. The work would never get done. Also, imagine if the person who had the gift of teaching decided to bag it. Someone else who would be less skilled would have to take over. The church needs EVERYONE. And EVERYONE has something very crucial to add.

Scoring your Spiritual Gifts

- 1) Find the column in the box.
- 2) Write in the number corresponding to the frequency that you choose:
 O = 3
 S = 2
 R = 1
 N = 0
- 3) When finished with all of the boxes add up the total of each row.
- 4) The totals that are the highest probably indicate your spiritual gift.

Number	Number	Number	Number	Number	Total	Gift
1	22	43	64	85		Prophesying
2	23	44	65	86		Serving
3	24	45	66	87		Teaching

Each of the following numbers is a possible total from the scoring above. You can put a mark (dash, circle, check) under each number for each total above. So if you had three totals of 5 then you would have three marks under the number 5. This may help you to make your break for determining which gifts are the highest.
